

How to Apply to be a Teen Science Scholar

First Time Applicants

- Please click on the application link and complete the following steps
- Create an Account
- Update Your Profile
- Complete Required Essays

That is all you need to do!

Current Volunteer

If you are a current volunteer, please contact Volunteer.Engagement@dmns.org to have the Teen Science Scholar Checklist added to Your Account.

Applied Last Year

If you applied to be a Teen Science Scholar in 2023, contact Volunteer.Engagement@dmns.org to have your account reset. Please avoid creating a new account. We will respond to the request within 48 hours. Please do not create another account.

Important Reminders

- In the Essay section, save your progress by entering text in an essay box ("Please share why you have chosen this specific area"). Any boxes checked or other fields you type in will NOT be saved unless you type some text in an essay box.
- Complete all steps; incomplete applications will not be considered.
- If you are selected for an interview, you will receive an email with instructions on scheduling a date and time after Monday, March 11. Interviews will likely take place beginning Tuesday, March 12 – Friday, March 22. Please check your email regularly and respond promptly.
