

Galactic Gold CELEBRATION

FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 2025

GIDDY UP for a far-out celebration!

The Denver Museum of Nature & Science is commemorating our 125th anniversary with a party for the ages. Be transported through space and time as we bring the past's vision of the future to life.

Join us for the Galactic Gold Celebration, a party that blends the adventurous spirit of the West with the boundless optimism of the Space Age. Dust off your best cosmic Western attire for a night filled with fun, discovery, and celebration. Support the Museum's mission while mingling with fellow space rangers and science enthusiasts at this roaming reception featuring unforgettable delectable hors d'oeuvres, desserts, drinks, and more. Attendees will experience the Museum as never before with surprises around every corner.

It's a party 125 years in the making – celebrate the Museum's legacy while igniting a lasting passion for nature and science in our community. Mark your calendar and prepare for an out-of-this-world evening!
